

Serving our members and our community since 1888

Originally incorporated as the Pasadena Board of Trade in 1888, the Chamber of Commerce played a pivotal role in the development and funding of Pasadena.

The Chamber passed the bond measure that paid to construct our Pasadena Public Library, City Hall, and Civic Auditorium. We funded Pasadena's schools, libraries, hospitals, and the iconic Colorado Street Bridge. We successfully advocated for creation of the Pasadena Freeway, the Metro Gold Line and much more.

We decided to open a facility in Pasadena and began talking to the Chamber staff about the best site to locate our company. Within a month we moved in here."
